

Puja Mody is the Co-VP of Programming at WIIT and a Government & Regulatory Affairs Executive in IBM's Export Regulation Office. She advises company worldwide on their export control and economic sanctions compliance; specializing in customer eligibility, U.S. Export Controls, and Russia sanctions. Prior to joining IBM, Puja worked in export control policy and nonproliferation at the U.S. Department of Commerce (BIS), U.S. Department of State (DDTC); and Department of Energy (NNSA). She holds a M.S. in Chemistry and a B.A. in International Studies from American University.